On June 11, 2007, Suber was indicted in the Montgomery County Court of Common Pleas on two counts of Dogfighting and one count of Attempting to Commit Dogfighting, case number 2007 CR 01644-1. On July 5, 2007, Suber plead guilty to two counts Dogfighting and in exchange for his guilty plea the count of Attempting to Commit Dogfighting was dismissed. On August 9, 2007, Suber was sentenced to five years community control.

U.S. Probation Officer Recommendation: On May 18, 2007, Your Honor granted Suber an exception to revocation and modified the conditions of his supervision to include completion of 60 hours community service as a result of his May 4, 2007 conviction for Dogfighting in the Hamilton County Court of Common Pleas, case number B072268, for an incident that took place on December 30, 2006. At that time, it was believed Suber's involvement in Dogfighting was minor, and as a one time spectator. However, the charges that Suber plead guilty to in Montgomery County took place on October 28, 2006, and were for not only being a spectator at a dogfight, but also for knowingly promoting, engaging in or being employed at dogfighting. Thus, Suber's involvement in dogfighting was more extensive than originally believed.
